To Whom It May Concern,

Cheryl Parisi has been a close contact of mine both personally and professionally for almost five years. We have worked together on real estate transactions and on home staging projects. During these years, she has and continues to impress me with her genuine abilities and tremendous amount of experience as a real estate entrepreneur. My observation is that she serves all of her clients fairly and with the utmost professionalism. Cheryl will always do the right thing – regardless of the resistance she may face – with candor and grace. To me, this displays the highest form of character.

I believe Cheryl's client list continues to grow and she enjoys high level of repeat client business because of the level of service she provides. She truly cares about her clients' wellbeing beyond just the transaction she sees them through. Cheryl is a well-rounded, top-notch agent, and I know that she will be successful as an agent, broker, manager or any other business venture she may pursue.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to me.

Sincerely,
