For the first time, the Department of Public Services competed in the American Public Works Association (APWA), Metro Branch Snow Roadeo with two teams (Jared Bauman/Vince Jesue and Bob Zachos/Shawn Van Buskirk at the Palace of Auburn Hills on Thursday, September 5th. The competition is an obstacle course designed to simulate actual snow plowing operations where drivers are timed and scored for accuracy, safety, and speed.

The City of Rochester Hills came out on top. By winning the Metro Area Roadeo, our team was awarded a scholarship to the Midwest Snowplow Roadeo on Wednesday, October 9th in Kentwood. As an added bonus, the APWA paid for all expenses related to having our team compete in the State competition.
