January 2021 Project

The Youth Council discussed ideas to implement for January's project. After much discussion and consideration of the current restrictions due to COVID; Youth Council unanimously agreed to create a Teacher Appreciation Video for the Rochester Hills Community Schools District Staff.

The teacher appreciation project will provide a district wide appreciation for teachers and outreach opportunity for students grades K-12th to participate, lead by Youth Council. Youth Council discussed specific aspects of the video project. The details included the following: Flipgrid Video format, 4-5 minute video, all age groups to be included grades K-12, and flyer for outreach and recruitment will be created.

Youth member Dosanjh volunteered to create a Google form for students interested in participating. Youth member Bennett volunteered to create a flyer to distribute to students for recruitment. Youth member Hall volunteered to create a Flipgrid account to collect all video entries and create video. Youth Council member Iyer volunteered to create a Google sheets document to track all of the student outreach done by Youth Council.

Task assignments can be found on the RHGYC Google drive for details and updates.
