

Office of the Mayor

PROCLAMATION

CITY OF ROCHESTER HILLS NATIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATORS WEEK

- WHEREAS, emergencies can occur at anytime that require police, fire or emergency medical services; and
- WHEREAS, when an emergency occurs, the prompt response of law enforcement, firefighters, and paramedics is critical to the protection of life and preservation of property; and
- WHEREAS, the safety of our firefighters and deputy sheriffs are dependent upon the quality and accuracy of information obtained from citizens who telephone the Rochester Hills Communication Center; and
- WHEREAS, emergency dispatchers are the first and most critical contact our citizens have with emergency services; and
- WHEREAS, emergency dispatchers are the single vital link for our emergency services personnel by monitoring their activities by radio, providing them information and insuring their safety; and
- WHEREAS, emergency dispatchers of the Rochester Hills Communication Center contributed substantially assisting in the treatment of patients, suppression of fires, and aiding law enforcement; and
- WHEREAS, each dispatcher has exhibited compassion, understanding and professionalism during the performance of their job in the past year.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that in honor of the men and women whose diligence and professionalism keep our city and citizens safe, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Rochester Hills declares the week of April 8 through April 14, 2007 to be National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week in Rochester Hills.

Bryan K. Barnett, Mayor

James Rosen, Council President

Barbara Holder, Vice President

Erik Ambrozaitis, Council Member

Jim Diastermars, Council Member

Greg Hooper, Council Member

Linda Raschke, Council Member

Ravi Yalamanchi, Council Member

