As an active member of my community, the opportunity to become a youth representative on the Rochester Hills City Council greatly interests me. The experience would be a very enlightening one. I hope to someday become involved in leadership positions in a part of our nation's political system, so the role as a youth representative would give me valuable experience in that field. I am also interested in playing a role in the decisions that are made in my community. While most people of my age group are apathetic in this aspect, I truly care about what decisions are made involving my town and understand that they affect me greatly. I hope that this position will help me to increase my knowledge of how a governmental system works and operates. Being able to see and participate in City Council meetings would do this effectively.

I am a member of the YMCA Michigan Youth in Government club at my high school. The club recently attended a large state meeting in Lansing where delegates from different schools in the state discussed and debated numerous mock bills that each of the members had designed. At this meeting, we abided by Robert's Rules of Order and I became very familiar with parliamentary procedure and speaking in front of a large group of people on a variety of issues. I believe the experience I gained from this and the fact that I am very informed about current issues in the city qualifies me well for this position. Aside from this, I am a very outgoing and an outspoken person. I am also very open-minded to other people's ideas, regardless of the issue. I believe that no argument and no situation can be entirely one-sided and that all points of view need to be considered.

As I mentioned earlier, I am very interested in current issues and happenings in the world. I make it a point to inform myself about such matters because I care about them and hope to be involved in affecting our world one day. Aside from this, I am very interested in filmmaking and movies and in the creative process.

As a youth representative, I would be sure to focus my time effectively on my position. I would set aside all time needed to complete any tasks assigned to me and would always attend City Council meetings when necessary. I would be sure to take the position completely seriously and I would realize the importance of giving it all of my time and effort. I would be honored to hold the position as a youth representative for the Rochester Hills City Council.

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to take this opportunity to highly recommend Andy LeBlanc for the position of student representative for the Rochester Hills City Council. I have gotten to know Andy on a personal level by his participation in our Youth-in-Government Program. Andy represented Adams High School in March at the annual statewide conference where he served as a state representative, writing bills, debating the issues, and enhancing his leadership abilities. Andy was only one of two freshmen in the program and he received rave reviews for his leadership at the Lansing Conference. I believe he would represent the youth of this area at the highest level.

Please consider Andy LeBlanc for this position. Don't hesitate to contact me at Adams High School should you desire further information on this fine citizen.

Sincerely,

Greg Clevenger

To whom it may concern:

Re: Andy Leblanc

Andy Leblanc has been a piano student of mine for over five years at the Rochester Conservatory of Music in Rochester Michigan. During that time, Andy has demonstrated the ability to complete complex and multi-faceted tasks with great attention to detail. He has consistently approached the study of music with the patience and mental alertness that it requires. He is able to follow directions carefully, comprehend new concepts quickly, and solve many problems creatively. His patient personality and quick thinking have made him a pleasure to have as a student.

Sincerely,

David Minnick
