Notes: City Council - Rules of Procedures: Meeting Cancellation
Committee members discussed the prospect of changing City Council's Rules of Procedure to permit the Council President, in concurrence with the Vice President, to cancel Council meetings in the event that there are an insufficient number of agenda items to merit a meeting. Current rules dictate that a meeting can only be cancelled by majority vote of the council, or due to inclement weather.

(Jennifer Stein entered the meeting at 5:12 p.m.)

City Council - Rules of Procedures: Action Taken at Work Sessions
Committee members discussed changing the Council's Rules of Procedure to permit Council to take action on necessary items at a Council Work Session rather than calling a Special Meeting to expedite these matters.

Again, Committee consensus was to bring this matter forward to Council for discussion and approval.
