1	Administration and Information Services Committee	03/01/2005	Discussed
---	---	------------	-----------	--	--	--	--

Notes: Ms. Bev Jasinski, City Clerk, presented the first draft of the new liquor license application. Committee members offered the following suggestions, noting that the application should request the following:

- * Information on whether the applicant has ever operated a restaurant.
- * A history of liquor violations dating back ten (10) years rather than five (5).
- * A description, in the applicants own words, of the "value to the community" the establishment would provide.
- * The applicant's personal or business (whichever is most applicable) financial statements for the past two (2) years.
- * List of the various food and liquor certifications completed by managers and employees.
- * A description of the type or "character" of the proposed establishment.

1 Administration and Information Services Committee 04/05/2005 Recommended for Approval City Council Pass

Notes: Committee discussed Liquor License - Revised Application

- * Prior City Clerk requested additional application information as follows:
 - * Information on whether the applicant has ever operated a restaurant.
 - * A history of liquor violations dating back ten (10) years rather than five (5).
 - * A description, in the applicant's own words, of the "value to the community" the establishment would provide.
 - * Applicant's personal business required as follows:
 - * Financial Statements for past two (2) years.
 - * Various food and liquor certifications of managers and employees.
 - * Description of the type of "character" of proposed establishment.
 - * This application solicits more information regarding business and operations requesting ten (10) year history.
 - * Request for the Financial statements two (20 year history might require an ordinance amendment.
 - * Ordinance is not specific about time frame it shows applicant criteria reviewed prior to license approval.
- Committee suggested that the criteria checklist accompany the application.*
- * It was mentioned that applicants are required by the State to be finger printed before any consideration.
 - * State insures a thorough criminal background check is required for all applicants.
 - * City is not authorized to check criminal background records and only retains finger prints on file.
