

for the property, and suggested that Public Hearings for all three proposed delistings be scheduled for the same date.

Mr. Delacourt stated the Public Hearing would have to be held after transmittal to the State, and noted there were some small sections to be completed in the Preliminary Report. He stated Staff would have to check for available dates for the auditorium, and would provide them to the Committee at the next meeting.

Chairperson Thompson summarized that the Report would be sent to the State and a date for the Public Hearing would be selected.
