Notes: Ms. Leslie, City Clerk, introduced Mr. Carlin, an attorney representing Mitchell's Fish Market, who came before AIS and Council in February 2006 for a request of a new license [See Legislative file 2006-0128] that was denied by Council on February 15, 2006. She gave a brief update which included the following: * Cameron Mitchell Restaurants, LLC has requested to transfer ownership of a 2006 Class C licensed business, located in escrow at 56808 Grand River, New Hudson, MI. The City has received the Local Approval Notice from the State. The restaurant is under construction and should be finished in about sixty (60) days. It will be located at the former site of Harry & David at the Village of Rochester Hills. All the necessary building permits have been acquired.

* Mitchell's reports and information remain "status quo" from when they were presented in February 2006 to the AIS Committee and City Council for a request of a new license which was denied by Council on February 15, 2006.

Mr. Carlin mentioned that first "role play" weekend, which is a large training weekend, is tentatively scheduled for the first weekend in August.
