Architectural Classification: Greek Revival

Material Notes:

Description: Upright and wing gable roof house with 1 1/2 story upright and one story wing. Screened porch addition to wing. One story rear ell addition with smooth concrete block foundation. Cornice returns on gable ends. Original 6/6 windows. White brick chimneys on each side. Much of stone foundation on main house has been topped with concrete block molded to look like cobblestone. Cellar entrance on back of upright. Concrete steps and platform at west door of rear ell.

Other Buildings/Features: Ruins of pump house on west side. Collapsed garage in rear.

Significant Persons:

Statement of Significance: Based on the tax rolls this house was constructed between 1845 and 1850. Lot 19 is not listed on the 1844 or 1845 tax rolls. In 1850 Robert Welts (or Weltz) was taxed on V.L.S.C. lots 17, 18, 19, 29, 30 & 31. Lot 19 was valued at $170; the remaining 5 lots were assessed between $4 and $15. In 1855 Horace Rogers owned the six lots with a combined value of $500. In 1860 Jedediah Millerd was the owner and combined value was $400. In 1865 Margaret Millerd was the owner, value of six lots still $400. The 1872 atlas map shows this house on lot 19, owned by C. Johnson. 1909 photos show Alice Hilton in front of the house. Sarah Van Hoosen Jones purchased the house ca. 1925. This is an excellent example of an upright and wing Greek Revival house with high integrity.

Surveyor's Comments: This house has the highest integrity of any Greek Revival house in Rochester Hills except for 1580 South Blvd. and 6081 Winkler Mill Road, which are very different versions of the style.
