I have a deep affection for my hometown, Rochester Hills, and I am a firm believer in the importance of civic engagement, particularly within one's local community. Ever since I became eligible to vote, I have actively participated in our local democratic processes, and my commitment has only grown stronger over time. My belief is that active involvement is crucial for fostering a safe, prosperous, and vibrant community, which motivates me to remain engaged. In recent elections, I have participated in several door-to-door campaigning efforts, engaging with residents in every precinct and focusing on local policies. This background equips me to contribute effectively to our community's well-being and willing to serve in whatever role is needed.
