Architectural Classification:

Material Notes:

Description: 1 1/2 story side gabled frame house. Two one story wings with attached two car garage at end of west wing. Front door with sidelights. Two brick chimneys. West wing has partial brick veneer.

Other Buildings/Features:

Significant Persons:

Statement of Significance Tax record has 1914 construction date. The house was originally part of the Maxwell Case Farm but was moved to its present site ca. 1962, when Stony Creek Metropolitan Park was developed. After the house was moved two wings were added. A portion of the rear of the house (previously bath and water closet) was pulled away and became a shed. Garage addition ca. 1990.
