

Office of the Sheriff
County of Oakland, State of Michigan
Sheriff Michael J. Bouchard

FOR OFFICIAL USE. NOT TO BE COPIED WITHOUT WRITTEN PERMISSION.

Introduction

For more than half a century, the Oakland County Sheriff's Office has worked closely with elected officials and community leaders in Rochester Hills to improve the quality of life and safety for residents and businesses. To ensure the continued delivery of the best law enforcement services available, we recommend current staffing be expanded to create a Directed Patrol Unit.

The Facts

- Of the nine largest cities in Oakland County, Rochester Hills (fourth largest) is the ONLY city without a specialized law enforcement unit dedicated to address specific criminal activity trends quickly.
- Rochester Hills substation has 60 sworn personnel - .08 Deputies for every 1,000 residents – barely half the 1.5 officer level suggested by the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting
- Troy has about 10,000 more residents than Rochester Hills' 74,764 residents, yet its police department has 107 full-time officers – 47 more officers than Rochester Hills.
- Troy spends $28.3 million annually to fund police services – nearly TRIPLE what Rochester Hills spends annually.
- Troy's police-to-residents ratio is 1.27 officers per 1,000 residents. Rochester Hills staffs at .08 Deputies per 1,000.
