

The Velodrome at Bloomer Park

The Velodrome at Bloomer Park is a 1/8th mile/200 meter wooden oval built for bicycle riding. It is available for training, racing and recreation by riders of all ages and abilities.

It was paid for by private donations, built by volunteers, given to the city of Rochester Hills and continues to be maintained by the non-profit Mike Walden Velodrome Fund, administered by the Community Foundation of Greater Rochester. No tax dollars have been spent on the VBP.

As we embark on our seventh season, we intend to add to a remarkable list of athletic accomplishments that include:

Kacey Manderfield, Age 20, two-time 2007 National Champion

Luke Cavender, Age 19, Nationally Ranked Trackie

Gene Diggs, Age 74, 1,500 Track Fitness Miles per year

Amanda Keller, Age 9, Future Olympian

Plus, 100s of Bike Racers, 100s of Recreational Riders & 100s of Spectators!
