

CITY OF ROCHESTER HILLS
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

PROCLAMATION IN RECOGNITION OF

Mike McClelland

On June 11, 2007, at approximately 12:30 PM a structure fire broke out at 327 Longford in the City of Rochester Hills. Occupant Cory Trimble and her daughter were in the house, unaware that a fire was blazing above them in the attic. Mike McClelland and Jeff Christie took immediate action to help a fellow resident safely escape a burning building.

WHEREAS, On the night of June 11, Mike McClelland and Jeff Christie were driving down Longford Street when they noticed flames and smoke coming from the top of a house; and

WHEREAS, Mike immediately stopped and alerted the occupant, Cory Trimble, that the house was on fire; and

WHEREAS, Mike was able to help Cory, her daughter, and a pet safely out of the burning structure; and

WHEREAS, While Mike was helping with the evacuation, Jeff called 911 Emergency to get public safety personnel on the scene as soon as possible.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that the Mayor and City Council of Rochester Hills hereby recognize Mike McClelland for his act of heroism in helping to alert Cory Trimble to the danger she was in and to safely escort her, her daughter, and a pet out of a burning building.
