Mr. Anzek provided copies of the following which are attached to Legislative File #2004-0469:

* An outline for two proposed Residential Streets Talk Shows in late June and late July

* A chart reflecting the cost a resident would have to pay to reconstruct or to repave his/her road

The Committee discussed the millage amounts of 2.92, 3.08 and 3.2 as needed for the Local Road Program.

A motion was made by Committee Member Zendel, seconded by Committee Member Atkinson, that this matter be Recommended for Approval to the City Council.

Resolved that the Community Development & Viability Committee and the Financial Services Committee recommend that City Council place a proposal on the November 2004 General Election ballot to request a 3.2 millage dedicated for the City's Residential Street Program for a ten (10) year period.

The motion carried by the following vote:

Aye: Cosenza, Kaszubski, Dalton, Hill, Atkinson and Zendel

Nay: Barnett

Absent: Holder and Duistermars

Enactment No: RES0279-2004
