SUBJECT: Dissolution of the Strategic Planning Technical Review Committee

On September 19, 1998 City Council pursued a citizen driven strategic planning process known as "Speak-Up". As a result of numerous forums that were held to solicit citizen participation, a strategic planning document was prepared by the American Communities Partnership (ACP) (the consulting firm used in this process). On September 29, 1999 City Council formed a Strategic Planning Committee to implement the strategic planning document.

Over the years, City Council has continued to appoint members to this committee even though it has not been meeting on a regular basis. At this point Council members on the Strategic Planning Technical Review Committee expressed their desire to combine this committee with the Council Policy Technical Review Committee, creating a single committee called the Strategic Planning and Policy Review Technical Review Committee.

To facilitate this, Council first needs to adopt a resolution to dissolve the Strategic Planning Technical Review Committee. This resolution has been included in your packet. The second course of action would be for Council to adopt a resolution combining these two committees (resolution also included in packet). If you should have any questions, please feel free to contact me.
