TEACHING EXPERIENCE

English and Civics Teacher, Flint Southwestern Academy, Flint, MI, Aug 2005-Present

- Developed and taught lesson plans to 10th graders based on Michigan Standards & Benchmarks
- Taught 2 English and 3 civics classes to students of all abilities
- Prepared students for MEAP by teaching persuasive writing process of locating clear position, and using Core Democratic Values (CDVs) to support position and refute opposing views
- Created and maintained cooperative learning environments through comprehensive planning, stimulating activities, consistent flexibility and conscientious empathy with high school learners
- Planned and taught multiple, original small group and class activities, including Congressional and Electoral College simulations and student-generated political parties (students created original party platform of major political issues), special interest groups, how-a-bill-becomes-a-law board games, and advertisement storyboards of original and historic presidential election commercials
- Taught writing through Debate Fridays, helping students to focus on reading, writing, taking notes and critically debating civic/political issues from current news articles
- Incorporated technology in computer lab setting by helping students evaluate political Internet sites
- Designed overheads for use during lectures and handouts to accompany student assignments
- Improved students' reading strategies by teaching connection/question note-taking process that helped them translate major text ideas into own words
- Discussed students' performances, achievements, improvement needs, behavior and parent/guardian concerns at marking period conferences
- Created, administered and graded quizzes, unit tests and mid-term exam
- Used GradeQuick to track students' progress and create reports for parent/guardian conferences
- Maintained daily student attendance records using district computer system
