RE: Meeting Start Time

As you are most likely aware, at its March 30, 2009 Meeting, City Council voted to begin their regularly scheduled meetings at 7:00 PM, rather than their traditional start time of 7:30 PM.

As the Planning & Development Department coordinates meetings for several of the City's Boards and Commissions, it seemed to be appropriate to discuss meeting start times with each Board and Commission.

Currently, the Brownfield Redevelopment Authority begins its meetings at 7:00 PM.

The Planning & Development Department would be very interested in hearing the Authority member's comments on whether 7:00 PM is still the appropriate time for the meetings to begin, or whether the Authority members think another time should be selected.
