RESIDENCE: Louis Berklich (c. 1944)
STYLE OF BUILDING: Greek Revival - Plantation Style
TYPE OF CONSTRUCTION: Wood Frame
LOCATION: 2371 Livernois Road - South
CURRENT OWNER'S NAME: Louis Berklich
ADDRESS: 2371 S. Livernois Road, Rochester, NY 48307

HISTORICAL DATA:

The house was built in 1944 on a 5 acre parcel on Rochester and Auburn Roads, by Mr. & Mrs. George Berklich. The architect was Mr. Jack Burns, Rochester. The George Berklich family lived in the house until 1969 when the land was sold for development. It was originally on the southeast corner of Auburn and Rochester Roads, where the Pat Moran Car Dealer is located. The George Berklich family lived in the house until 1969 when the land was sold for development. The current owners Mr. & Mrs. Louis Berklich moved the house from Rochester Road to its present site, 2371 Livernois Road, Rochester Hills, in August, 1970.

At the time it was moved, an addition the length of back of the house was added-- kitchen, dining area, utility room and pantry. Plans for the addition were drawn up by Louis Berklich, Architect.

The Louis Berklich family moved in the house in 1976.

ADDITIONAL REMARKS:

Excellent exterior condition. Architecturally significant.
