Re: Jagged Fork No. 1, LLC d/b/a The Jagged Fork Request for Class C Liquor License and Conditional Land Use Approval

Dear Sir/Madam:

I write this letter to you, as a member of and on behalf of The Jagged Fork, for our request for a Class C Liquor License and the approval of Conditional Land Use. The Jagged Fork is an upscale brunch restaurant located at 188 N. Adams Rd., Rochester Hills, Michigan 48309. I, along with my three members, Francesco Adamopoulos, Stavros Adamopoulos and Christina Adamopoulos, are long-time residents of Metro Detroit area and successfully own and operate The Jagged Fork as well as two other brunch restaurants in the Metro Detroit area; The Jagged Fork in Grosse Pointe Farms and The Hudson Café in Downtown Detroit. The Jagged Fork in Grosse Pointe Farms recently obtained its Michigan Liquor License and The Hudson Café is currently in the process of obtaining its license with Michigan Liquor Control Commission.

With the approval of the Class C Liquor License and Conditional Land Use, The Jagged Fork plans to provide the community with a well-crafted line of brunch beverages, including mimosas, Irish coffee and bloody mary drinks to serve alongside our creative pancakes options, skilletts, other superb breakfast dishes, plus sandwiches and salads.

The three local restaurants all strive to run an exceptional business, both operationally and financially, while maintaining the feel of a small restaurant.

As a member of these three family-owned businesses in Metro Detroit, we hope to serve the community with this opportunity to advance our menu. We believe that a locally run restaurant, like ours, would thrive in the City of Rochester Hills with the approval to sell alcohol. I believe this will be an excellent opportunity for The Jagged Fork to enhance the community and its residents.
