

G. Murray. of this city was elected to assist Bishop William Paret.

ROCHESTER.—Henry W. Ostrum, a prosperous farmer, one mile south of here, was kicked by a mule while feeding his stock. His right leg was broken. He is 81 years old and proprietor of the Eureka fruit farm.

1905 CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BLDG.

FORTY-ACRE FARM for sale; the buildings cannot be built for cost of farm; pleasant, healthy location; nine-room brick house, basement barn; three-fourths mile from Rochester schools, three-fourths mile from D. C. R.; good cement sand pit on farm, G. T. passing 20 rods from sand pit, southeast corner. For particulars address H. W. OSTROM, owner, Rochester, Mich.
