STAFF REPORT

Matt Einheuser updated members on completed work by Stantec. They did a prescribed burn at the Ruby Green Space. Additionally, they completed woody cuttings at Clear Creek and Auburn.

Einheuser mentioned that the Natural Resources staff have been working with the Parks staff on the Nowicki Park designs. Member Morris asked about the timeline, discussion ensued.

Einheuser informed members that staff met with ASTI regarding the cleanup of trash at the Bee Property. Matt also indicated that he is looking into cost effectiveness of combining demo with the Livernois property and velodrome. Discussion ensued.

Einheuser discussed OAK in the Hills. Matt asked members to confirm who can attend and Member McCurdy asked for an email to be sent out. Matt also informed members that a face painter had been secured this year for the event. Discussion ensued.

Einheuser updated members on Yates Cutoff channel restoration and stabilization. Since most of the work is on private property, permission was given from the landowner to start work. City working on the permitting, should be done next year. Discussion ensued.

Einheuser mentioned the Garlic Mustard Pull attendance. A good amount of people are signed up to volunteer.

Einheuser informed members that the Arbor Day Celebration will be on April 25, 2025. The tree planting will be at 4:00 pm at Eagles Landing and there will be seedlings available to those who would like them.

Member Bruce suggested a sign at the Harding Green Space entrance and further down that restoration is in process. Discussion ensued.
