

Planning and Economic Development
Sara Roediger, AICP, Director

From: Chris McLeod, Planning Manager
To: Planning Commission
Date: December 10, 2024
Re: Study Session – Transportation and Community Health

At our December 10, 2024 Planning Commission study session we will be discussing transportation and community health with our consultant team of Giffels Webster and City staff. Included in your packets is specific information relative to transportation and community health within the City's adopted Transportation Master Plan as well as from master plan survey data.