

Communication and Education
Increase Communication to and from the Historic District Commission to Administration, Planning Commission, City Council, etc.
Increase communication with those residents that currently reside within the City's historic districts to proactively develop guidelines, regulations and solutions for modernizing historic buildings in a manner consistent with Department of Interior modernizing historic buildings in a manner consistent with Department of Interior regulations.
Initiate joint meetings with the Planning Commission or Planning Commission and City Council
Consider the establishment of a designated HDC/PC Liason or create a dedicated HDC section in the Staff Report provided by Administration to the Planning Commission highlighting HDC actions.
Provide minutes to the HDC and Planning Commission of relevant cases
Establish a dedicated agenda item on HDC agendas for reporting on current HDC approved construction projects
Establish more regular communication with the RH Museum at Van Hoosen Farm
Establish more regular communication with the Historical Societies within the City
Increase promotion and education of historic district existence, regulations, guidance, potential assistance, procedures and of the Earl Borden Awards
Establish an annual forum for residents that reside within a historic residence
Work with Oakland County to promote historical assets within the community as a potential tourism opportunity.
Projects
Maintain / update official surveys of historic resources to ensure validity and meeting Certified Local Government (CLG) requirements
Develop specific design guidelines for each of the contiguous historic districts within the City and assess the need for RH specific overall guidelines that would be more generally applicable to the noncontiguous historic district.
Ensure historic district commission review is fully integrated into the site plan review/development process for historic resources in the city.
Implement a sidewalk/pathway system servicing the Stony Creek Historic District can be developed to improve safety while minimizing impacts to the integrity of the district.
Develop and implement a historic plaque program for those houses identified as a historic resource within the City.
Develop historic walk (interior/outdoor) through the City to highlight city historic resources (item to discuss at annual HD resident forum
Review options for improving and maintaining the alleyway that runs parallel to Runyon and E. Tienken within the Stony Creek Historic District.
Design competition for how sidewalk/pathway to go through SCHD		