Youth Council Members were informed of the Light the Village event taking place on November 17th, 2023.

PUBLIC COMMENT

None.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Youth Council members shared updates for the Study Night at the Library. Members divided themselves into committees and brainstormed possible options.

Marketing Committee- Ideas include: possibly making flyers, adding to the morning announcements at each High School. As well as making signs for the separate areas in the library for silent working, tutoring, and collaboration zones.

Set-Up Committee-Ideas include: possibly having an area designated for food, food trolleys walking around with snacks. Making a map for the event, bringing in tutors for assigned subjects.

Communications Committee- Ideas include: finding the best day to have the event, reaching out to the Library about hosting the event. Tentative date: Thursday, January 11th, 2024.

Food Committee- Ideas include: reaching out to local restaurants for food donations, making a list of possible snacks,

NEW BUSINESS

Youth Council discussed possible service projects including adopting a family through the New Day Foundation, as well as creating ornaments for Rainbow Connection. Youth Council members Hayes, Chalmers, and Giri volunteered to reach out to the organizations and find out more information.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

The new Adult Advisor, Shelby Henderson introduced herself to the group and led an ice breaker.
